

Become the Reporter
You've Always Wanted to Be:
Secrets Revealed with Principles of Investigative Reporting
from CBS TroubleShooter,
Judd McIlvain

Instruction begins:

When: Wednesdays 6-9PM

Where: Media Center on Campus of Sustainable Environmental Education in Whittier.

“Principles of Investigative Reporting” will teach you how to write, how to shoot, and how to speak through video and radio. You will learn how to interview, and why it is imperative to ask the right questions. Meanwhile, you will learn how to use high tech equipment devices that are needed in becoming a true television and radio investigator.

McIlvain will teach the student to weave a mysterious story into factual information. You will be learning interviewing techniques for a crime story; and legal boundaries will be outlined for different states as well.

You will go beyond the surface of a story and get to the facts! You'll learn how to relay the good and the bad in society, and by doing this you'll become the non-bias informer.

A certificate of completion will be awarded to every student who completes the course.

The tuition is only $360 dollars per person.

For more information log on to: SEEYourCareer.org or call Pam at (562)945-6469.

Sustainable Environmental Education

is a nonprofit 501(c) 3 organization whose mission is to unite and inspire higher performance through education, outreach, advocacy and the mutual exchange of ideas to better ones life.

We offer workshops and seminars including, but not limited to: Radio Broadcasting, Landscape Design, Small Engine Repair, Money Management, etc. For more info log on to: SEEYourCareer.org.

TroubleShooter Judd McIlvain

Emmy-award winning Judd McIlvain is one of the most trusted consumer investigative reporters in the U.S. He's done reports for CBS News, ABC News, CBS's 48-Hours, United Press International and KCBS TV News, L.A. His "Troubleshooter" TV Consumer show ran for four years in L.A. and he's been doing his Troubleshooter News segments in L.A. for 14 years.

Mr. McIlvain is now ready to show you how to become an investigative reporter and get the right answers whether for television, radio, business or just for fun.

Learn from the best.
Tuition only $360. Call today!

Ask for Pam

562-945-6469

*Credit card, check and bank-
to-bank transfers accepted.
Call Pam at 562-9456469*

